PLAINTIFF NETLIST INC.'S RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT
(DKT. 382)

Netlist does not oppose the Court setting oral argument on Micron's motion to stay. Any such hearing, however, should not interfere with the pretrial conference. In the pretrial order, filed the day before Micron's request for oral argument, the parties listed 20 pending motions to be heard at the pretrial conference; Micron did not list its motion to stay. Dkt. 354 at 20-21. The motion to stay has been fully briefed for months; Micron's request at this point appears to be a tactic designed to detract from the pretrial conference. Netlist believes the pretrial conference should stand on its own, and be used to resolve the large number of outstanding disputed motions for trial.
